

Worksheet: Questions About Your Medications for Your Prescriber

After reading over Tables 4.1 and 4.2, mark the medications on the Tables that you take now and have taken in the past, and below, write down any questions or observations you have about your CNS active medications. You will be discussing these questions with both your prescribing physician and your seizure counselor.